GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

China Education Symposium

March 28, 2017

United States Embassy, China

Dear Sir or Madam:

I write to confirm the invitation of Mr. Rui Wang as a guest to the 2017 Harvard China Education Symposium Annual Conference, which will be held on the Harvard campus by our student organization, the Harvard China Education Symposium. Mr. Rui Wang is the Deputy Director of Office of Undergraduate Education, Jilin University.

China Education Symposium (CES), founded and led by Harvard Graduate School of Education students, is an officially-recognized graduate student organization at the Harvard Graduate School of Education with members who want to make a difference to education in China by addressing many important issues of Chinese education. CES creates a platform for students, scholars, practitioners, private sector, and the civil society to discuss educational issues, create innovative practices and build a passionate community of educators.

On April 28th and May 1st, 2017, CES will hold the 2017 China Education Symposium. International scholars, education officials and practitioners from China and the United States will share their research and groundwork in various fields of education with the Harvard community.

Mr. Rui Wang has been invited by CES as a guest at this significant campus-wide event. Your granting a visa will make his participation possible at this important education conference on our campus. Mr. Rui Wang's information is provided below:

Full Name: Rui Wang
Date of Birth: 10/02/1980
